

BCS Foundation Certificate in Agile Course

Course Duration : 24 Hours

Course code : BCS-AGL-925

1. Course Overview

The BCS Foundation Certificate in Agile Course is designed to provide a strong understanding of Agile principles, methodologies, and practices used in modern project management and software development. This course focuses on delivering value quickly, improving collaboration, and adapting to changing business requirements.

2. What you'll learn?

- Fundamentals of Agile methodology
- Agile frameworks (Scrum, Kanban)
- Agile roles and responsibilities
- Sprint planning and execution
- Continuous improvement and feedback
- Agile tools and best practices

3. Target Audience

- Project managers and team leaders
- Business analysts and consultants
- IT professionals and developers
- Product owners and Scrum masters
- Students and fresh graduates

4. Pre-Requisites

- Basic understanding of project management (recommended)
- Interest in Agile and modern workflows
- No prior Agile experience required

5. Course Content (Modules)

Module 1: Introduction to Agile

- Agile principles and values
- Agile vs traditional methodologies
- Benefits of Agile

Module 2: Agile Frameworks

- Scrum framework
- Kanban methodology
- Agile lifecycle

Module 3: Agile Roles & Ceremonies

- Roles (Scrum Master, Product Owner, Team)
- Sprint planning and daily stand-ups
- Reviews and retrospectives

Module 4: Agile Tools & Practices

- Backlog management
- User stories and prioritization
- Agile tools overview

Module 5: Case Studies & Certification Preparation

- Real-world Agile projects
- Best practices
- BCS Foundation exam preparation