

BCS Practitioner Certificate in Business Analysis Practice Course

Course Duration : 24 Hours

Course code : BCS-BAP-910

1. Course Overview

The BCS Practitioner Certificate in Business Analysis Practice Course is designed to provide in-depth knowledge of business analysis principles, techniques, and best practices. This course focuses on understanding business needs, identifying solutions, and delivering value-driven outcomes in organizational projects.

2. What you'll learn?

- Core concepts of business analysis
- Stakeholder identification and management
- Requirements gathering and documentation
- Business process modeling techniques
- Solution evaluation and validation
- Certification exam preparation

3. Target Audience

- Business analysts and aspiring analysts
- Project managers and consultants
- IT professionals and system analysts
- Professionals involved in business change initiatives
- Graduates looking to enter the business analysis field

4. Pre-Requisites

- Basic understanding of business processes
- Familiarity with IT or project environments (recommended)
- Analytical and problem-solving mindset
- No mandatory certification required

5. Course Content (Modules)

Module 1: Introduction to Business Analysis

- Role of a business analyst
- Key concepts and frameworks
- Business analysis lifecycle

Module 2: Investigating Business Situations

- Techniques for business analysis
- Root cause analysis
- Gap analysis

Module 3: Requirements Engineering

- Eliciting and documenting requirements
- Functional and non-functional requirements
- Requirements validation

Module 4: Stakeholder Engagement & Process Modeling

- Stakeholder management strategies
- Business process modeling techniques
- Communication skills

Module 5: Solution Evaluation & Certification Preparation

- Evaluating solutions
- Measuring business value
- BCS Practitioner exam preparation

