

BCS Practitioner Certificate in Data Protection Course

Course Duration : 40 Hours

Course code : BCS-DPP-923

1. Course Overview

The BCS Practitioner Certificate in Data Protection Course is designed to provide advanced knowledge of data protection practices, focusing on implementing and managing data privacy frameworks within organizations. This course builds on foundational concepts and emphasizes practical application of data protection principles in real-world scenarios.

2. What you'll learn?

- Advanced data protection principles and frameworks
- Implementing data protection policies and procedures
- Privacy impact assessments (PIA)
- Risk management and compliance strategies
- Data breach handling and incident response
- Certification exam preparation

3. Target Audience

- Data protection officers and compliance professionals
- IT security professionals and consultants
- Risk and governance professionals
- Business analysts and managers
- Professionals handling sensitive data

4. Pre-Requisites

- Basic knowledge of data protection concepts
- Experience in IT, compliance, or risk management (recommended)
- BCS Foundation Certificate in Data Protection (preferred)
- Understanding of data privacy regulations

5. Course Content (Modules)

Module 1: Advanced Data Protection Concepts

- Review of data protection principles
- Roles and responsibilities
- Legal and regulatory frameworks

Module 2: Data Governance & Policy Implementation

- Designing data protection policies
- Governance structures
- Compliance management

Module 3: Risk Management & Privacy Impact Assessment

- Conducting risk assessments
- Privacy impact assessments (PIA)
- Mitigation strategies

Module 4: Incident Management & Data Breach Handling

- Detecting and managing data breaches
- Incident response planning
- Reporting and compliance

Module 5: Case Studies & Certification Preparation

- Real-world scenarios
- Best practices
- BCS Practitioner exam preparation