

SAP S/4HANA Production Orders

Course Duration: 24 Hours

Course Code: PPORD100

1. Course Overview

The SAP S/4HANA Production Orders course provides learners with comprehensive knowledge of production order management within the SAP S/4HANA environment. Participants will gain hands-on experience in creating, processing, and monitoring production orders, understanding integration with materials management, planning, and inventory processes. The course emphasizes best practices to optimize manufacturing execution, improve efficiency, and ensure accurate production reporting.

2. What You'll Learn?

- Fundamentals of production order management in SAP S/4HANA
- Creating and maintaining production orders
- Scheduling and execution of production orders
- Integration with materials planning, inventory, and procurement
- Goods issue and goods receipt processing for production orders
- Monitoring, reporting, and performance analysis of production operations
- Best practices for production order lifecycle management

3. Target Audience

- Production planners and manufacturing professionals
- SAP PP functional consultants
- SAP S/4HANA users involved in production operations
- Project team members supporting manufacturing processes

4. Pre-Requisites

- Basic knowledge of SAP S/4HANA navigation
- Understanding of manufacturing and production planning concepts is recommended

5. Course Content

Module 1: Introduction to SAP Production Orders

Module 2: Creating and Maintaining Production Orders

Module 3: Scheduling and Capacity Planning

Module 4: Goods Issue and Goods Receipt for Production Orders

Module 5: Integration with Materials Planning and Inventory

Module 6: Monitoring and Reporting Production Orders

Module 7: Best Practices and Optimization Techniques

