

S4120 - Business Processes in SAP S/4HANA Project Control

Course Duration: 24 Hours

Course Code: S4120

1. Course Overview

The Business Processes in SAP S/4HANA Project Control (S4120) course provides comprehensive knowledge of project control processes in SAP S/4HANA. Participants will learn how to manage project planning, budgeting, execution, and monitoring using integrated SAP functionalities. The course focuses on practical scenarios, hands-on exercises, and best practices to ensure efficient project management and accurate reporting throughout the project lifecycle.

2. What You'll Learn?

- Overview of SAP S/4HANA project control and its role in project management
- Planning and budgeting for projects in SAP S/4HANA
- Managing project structures, WBS elements, and network activities
- Monitoring project progress, costs, and timelines
- Integration with finance, procurement, and manufacturing modules
- Reporting and analytics for project performance
- Best practices for effective project control

3. Target Audience

- Project managers and project controllers
- SAP PS (Project System) functional consultants
- SAP S/4HANA users involved in project management
- Business analysts supporting project control processes

4. Pre-Requisites

- Basic understanding of SAP S/4HANA navigation
- Knowledge of project management concepts is recommended

5. Course Content

Module 1: Introduction to SAP S/4HANA Project Control

Module 2: Project Planning and Budgeting

Module 3: Managing Project Structures (WBS, Networks, Activities)

Module 4: Execution and Monitoring of Projects

Module 5: Cost and Timeline Management

Module 6: Integration with Finance, Procurement, and Manufacturing

Module 7: Reporting, Analytics, and Best Practices

