

SAP Business One – Logistics

Course Duration: 40 Hours

Course Code: B1LOG

1. Course Overview

The SAP Business One – Logistics Course provides in-depth knowledge of managing supply chain and logistics operations using SAP Business One. This training covers core logistics processes including procurement, inventory management, sales, distribution, and warehouse management. Through the SAP Business One – Logistics Training, participants will learn how to streamline operations, improve visibility, and enhance efficiency in supply chain activities. Completing this course prepares learners for the SAP Business One – Logistics Certification, validating their ability to manage logistics functions effectively.

2. What You'll Learn

- Overview of logistics processes in SAP Business One
- Procurement cycle and vendor management
- Inventory and warehouse management
- Goods receipt, issue, and stock transfers
- Sales order processing and distribution
- Integration of logistics with accounting and financials
- Reporting and analytics for logistics management
- Best practices for supply chain optimization

3. Target Audience

- SAP Business One Consultants
- Logistics and Supply Chain Professionals
- Warehouse and Inventory Managers
- ERP Implementation Professionals
- Business Analysts focusing on operations management

4. Pre-Requisites

- Basic understanding of logistics and supply chain concepts
- Familiarity with ERP or SAP Business One fundamentals (recommended)

5. Course Content (Modules)

- Module 1: Introduction to Logistics in SAP Business One
- Module 2: Procurement and Vendor Management
- Module 3: Inventory Control and Warehouse Operations
- Module 4: Goods Receipts, Issues, and Stock Transfers
- Module 5: Sales Order Processing and Distribution
- Module 6: Reporting and Analysis in Logistics
- Module 7: Best Practices and Case Studies