

COBIT 5 Assessor

Course Duration : 24 Hours

Course code : COBIT5-ASSR

1. Course Overview

The COBIT® 5 Assessor course is designed for professionals who want to develop the skills required to assess, evaluate, and measure IT governance and management processes using the COBIT® 5 framework. This course focuses on the COBIT® 5 Process Assessment Model (PAM) and enables learners to perform formal capability assessments, identify gaps, and recommend improvements aligned with enterprise goals and best practices.

2. What you'll learn?

- COBIT® 5 principles and framework overview
- COBIT® 5 Process Assessment Model (PAM)
- Process capability levels and assessment criteria
- Planning and conducting formal process assessments
- Evaluating process performance and maturity
- Reporting assessment results and improvement recommendations

3. Target Audience

- IT Governance and Assurance Professionals
- IT Auditors and Risk Managers
- COBIT® Practitioners and Consultants
- Compliance and GRC Professionals
- Professionals responsible for IT process improvement

4. Pre-Requisites

- Basic understanding of IT governance and management
- Familiarity with COBIT® 5 framework is recommended
- Experience in audit, risk, or governance roles is beneficial

5. Course Content (Modules)

Module 1: Introduction to COBIT® 5

- COBIT® 5 principles and enablers
- Governance and management domains

Module 2: Process Measurement and Capability Model

- Process capability levels
- Assessment attributes and indicators

Module 3: COBIT® 5 Process Assessment Model (PAM)

- PAM structure and components
- Assessment evidence and rating scale

Module 4: Conducting a Process Assessment

- Assessment planning and scoping
- Data collection and validation

Module 5: Reporting and Continuous Improvement

- Assessment reporting techniques
- Process improvement and optimization